ABOUT THE ORGANIZERS

The International Paediatric Brain Injury Society (IPBIS) is a professional association of multidisciplinary professionals dedicated to advancing research and disseminating knowledge on paediatric brain injury.

The North American Brain Injury Society (NABIS) seeks to move brain injury science into practice. Whether it is in the area of clinical care, research, or public policy, the organization stands behind the premise that advances in science and practices based on application of the scientific evidence will ultimately provide the best outcomes for those with brain injuries.

IPBIS and NABIS have entered into a strategic affiliation with the International Brain Injury Association (IBIA), the world's largest membership-based organisation for multidisciplinary professionals working in the field of brain injury.

ABOUT THE VENUE

Built during the height of the Jazz Age, the New Yorker Hotel has dazzled visitors with its Art Deco décor, exceptional service, and superb location for generations. The New Yorker has a history as intriguing as her intricate design, welcoming celebrities, politicians and artists for decades. The “Grand Old Lady” has been a striking component of the New York skyline since her 1930 inception.

The hotel enjoys a perfect location in Midtown Manhattan, just minutes from the Empire State Building, Times Square, Javits Center, Penn Station, Madison Square Garden, and a host of world-class museums and restaurants. The location of the iconic New Yorker puts some of the city’s most remarkable attractions right at your doorstep!

CONFERENCE FORMAT

The Conference will feature an outstanding faculty of internationally recognized speakers delivering platform lectures, panels and workshops. State of the art research is presented dealing with every aspect of brain injury from coma to community. In addition to the invited lectures and panels, peer reviewed abstracts will be considered for oral or poster presentations. Abstracts will be reviewed by the Joint Conference Planning Committee, and the submission portal is currently open through April 11, 2022.

The Conference will bring together multidisciplinary professionals with an interest in improving outcomes for children and adults with brain injury.

Attendees will be comprised of rehabilitation physicians, neuropsychologists, therapists, allied health professionals, educators and brain injury advocates from around the world. A support and exhibit presence at the Joint Conference will bring your organization face-to-face with the decision makers and key opinion leaders who are shaping the future of brain injury research, treatment and rehabilitation.

COVID MITIGATION

At the present time, IPBIS and NABIS are planning to hold the Joint Conference in-person. Ultimately, the health and safety of registrants, partners and staff remain our main concern. The organizers will continue to follow guidance and recommended safety measures from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and the World Health Organization (WHO), as well as state and local officials. IPBIS/NABIS are mindful that the course of the pandemic remains unclear and unpredictable, and any changes to our plans will be announced should a virtual conference become necessary.
